SUED BY LEAP YEAR WOOER. Boy of 20 Accepts Proposal of Woman of 88 and Is Now in Jail for Retreating.

POUGHEEPSIE, June 6 .- Marion Lewis. 20 years of age, is in jail, accused by Miss Addie Fluckinger, 18 years older, of toying with her affections. Lewis paid a visit to a relative in Ellenville last fall, at a time when the countryside was in the throes of a temperance crusade waged by Miss Fluckinger, who is a prominent and active member of the W. C. T. U. He met Miss Fluckinger and was wooed and won.

To Miss Fluckinger's timid request for his hand and heart, young Lewis whispered a shy and faltering "Yes." Subsequently he experienced a change of mind and de clined to carry out the matrimonial con-tract, on the ground that he was under age and not legally bound to keep his pledge.

Counsel for Lewis told Judge Betts that Lewis was willing to redeem his pledge, but the counsel for the plaintiff interposed a strenuous objection. He said that the age of Lewis was disputed and was therefore an issue that could only come up on the trial of the case, and that he could not agree to the marriage without first having

Judge Betts consented to postpone the case for one week. It is said that Lewis represented his age to Miss Fluckinger as 24. In his letter, written in jail, to Miss Fluckinger, Lewis addresses her as "Dear Madame" and expresses his willingness to marry her immediately and new her to marry her immediately and pay her lawyer's bill, and asks if she is willing

"We will depart for Oneida," he adds.

"I am sure you will be pleased with my folks, and we will live happy in the future, even though we have had trouble in the place."

The girl said that before she entered the place she had been working in a factory at $4 a week. She said she was induced by a woman to enter the House of the Holy Family, a branch of the Order of Sisters of Divine Compassion, of White Plains. She was put to work, she said, making children's underwear, and was allowed no exercise except in a small, inclosed courtyard. She said that for infraction of the rules she was obliged to lie face downward for hours and was punished with a ward for hours and was punished with a strap.

After seeing Mr. Garvan the lawyer said that the District Attorney would summon a number of girls to question them concerning their lives in the institution.

He Gets Out of Trenton Prison, but Is Arrested Again on Old Indictments. TRENTON, N. J., June 6.-George M. Valentine, who was cashier of the Middlesex County Bank and treasurer of the Perth Amboy Savings Institution, was released from the State prison to-day, having been confined there for four years and eight months. He was rearrested immediately and taken to New Brunswick to answer to six other indictments resulting from his defalcations. Valentine had been looking forward to the day when he should again be free, and it was a hard blow when he learned recently that it had been determined to arrest him again on the six additional indictments. As he stepped from the prison he seemed to be a physical and mental wreck. Valen-tine's peculations amounted to $208,000.

OPPOSED TO DR. SPRATLING?

Report That Local Civil Service Board Disapproves Hospital Appointment.

It was reported yesterday that the Municipal Civil Service Commission will not approve the appointment of Dr. William B. Spratling, recently chosen by the board of trustees of Bellevue and Allied Hospitals to be superintendent in place of Dr. William Mabon, now president of the State Commission in Lunacy, but will decline to recognize his credentials from the State Civil Service Commission. Assistant Superintendent Michael J. Rickard was pressed as the local candidate for the job. President John W. Brannan and other trustees appointed by Mayor Low opposed him, and he was defeated by one vote at a lively meeting of the

The trustees who voted for Dr. Spratling don't think the Municipal Civil Service Commission has any power to overrule the State Commission.

"There are courts in town for just such an emergency," Dr. Brannan said yesterday. Dr. Spratling did not take up his duties on June 1 as was expected, because he cannot leave the epileptic colony at Sonyea until June 15. Meanwhile, friends of Assistant Superintendent Rickard are telling each other to watch what happens when Dr. Spratling tries to take charge at Belle-

A high official said yesterday that Mr. Rickard would have accepted the third deputy commissionership in the Department of Charities when William R. Noonan was ousted recently, if he had not been assured that he would be appointed superintendent of Bellevue.

The trustees and nobody else have the say about appointments subject to civil service law regulations, but a trustee can be removed for disability or negligence after a hearing.

north of the camp.

The Sixty-Ninth Regiment will be in camp later on and Col. John Duncan Emmet and Capt. Patrick Joseph Maguire of Company F were in the tented city to-day, looking over the ground and making arrangements.

There was not a corporal's guard of spectators to witness the evening parade to-night. Last night there were several thousand. The heat to-day and the prospect of a shower at 6 o'cock to-night probably kept many people away.

PICKED UP SUNKEN SCOW. Floated About, a Menace to Navigation,

Since the Hoboken Fire. The United States tug Argus, Capt. Bell picked up a scow in the lower bay last evening. The scow was almost totally submerged. It is about 100 feet long and 30 feet wide. The Argus towed the wreck which was one of the boats burned in the recent Hoboken fire, into Rosebank, Staten Island.

One of the iron steamboats carrying a load of excursionists to Coney Island nearly ran into the wreck. Warned by the Argus, the steamboat stopped when her bow was within fifty feet of the submerged scow. The Patrol, the harbor police boat, nearly ran into the wreck.

Judgment Against President Cromwell. Nathan S. Barrett, a landscape artist. was plaintiff yesterday in an action tried in the Richmond county court, Judge in the Richmond county court, Judge Stephens tresiding, in which he sought to recover $1,500 from George Cromwell, President of Richmond borough. Mr. Barrett alleged that in 1893 Mr. Cromwell authorized him to make plans for the beautifying of his place. Mr. Barrett says that he worked on the plans for some months and that Mr. Cromwell pronounced them excellent, but too elaborate and costly. Mr. Barrett thought $1,500 was due to him, and Mr. Cromwell thought $250 was enough. The jury rendered a verdict for $500 in favor of Mr. Barrett.

The battle was fast. Walsh was the aggressor throughout, and his fighting was clean and clever. Stanley, on the contrary, continued the foul tactics of his previous contest. The referee cautioned him nineteen times. Stanley deliberately held Walsh, inflicting severe punishment on him. It was a wonder to impartial observers that the Englishman was not disqualified. OFFER FOR FITZ AND HART. Latter Accepts Chicago Club's Purse to Meet Cornishman Next Month.

If Bob Fitzsimmons consents to wait a few weeks a match will be arranged for him with Marvin Hart, the clever Louisville heavy-weight. Jack McCormick, who is Hart's manager, has received an offer from the Waverly A. C. of Chicago for Hart to face the Cornishman in a six round bout on June 16. McCormick informed the club that while Hart agreed to meet Fitz he would not be ready to do business until July 4. It is ex-ready to do business until July 4. It is expected that the Waverly people will consent to this arrangement, as the contest will surely attract a big crowd, and is worth while waiting for. Fitz is popular in Chicago, having appeared there on several occasions. Hart has been seen in that city also.

It is more than likely that in the meantime Fitz will engage in a struggle with Gus Ruhlin at Philadelphia. Billy Madden has been in communication with several fistic promoters of that city and they are waiting to hear from Fitz. If the ex-champion considers Ruhlin a likely opponent a match will be made at once. Ruhlin is in shape and would be ready to face "Lanky Bob" in two weeks, if the latter is satisfied. Fitz is doing light work at his home in Bath Beach, and those who have seen him lately say that he is in the pink of condition. A match between Kid McCoy and Fitz at Philadelphia at present seems remote for the Kid met Fitz the other day and said that he did not care to fight him, at least for a while.

BIDS FOR M'GOVERN AND HANLON Hayes Valley A. C. Makes Lowest Offer -The Fight Postponed.

Eddie Hanlon and Terry McJovern will not fight on July 15 as arranged. By mutual agreement the pair will meet on Sept. 5 instead. When the boys signed articles a bat open to the highest bidder. When the bids were opened yesterday it was found that the proposal of the National A. C. of Philadelphia was the largest. This club has offered so per cent. of the gross receipts for a six so per cent. of the gross receipts for a six round combat. Next came a purse of $5,000 from the Waverly A. C. of Chicago and a $6,000 from the Waverly A. C. of Chicago and a $6,000 from the From the Lenox A. C. of Philadelphia for a six round encounter. A bid was also received from the Eureka A. C. of Baltimore, which is controlled by Al Herford, manager of Joe Gans. This organization is ready to allow to the boxers 65 per cent. Of the gross receipts. The lowest proposal came from the Hayes Valley A. C. of San Francisco. The offer was 50 per cent. The representatives of both men were much surprised when they learned of the California club's bid, as they expected that this organization would give more money for the battle than the other clubs. It was more as a result of this offer that the managers agreed to put the fight off until Sept. 5 so as to give the other clubs in San Francisco a chance to get the combat. San Francisco is Hanlon's home, and for this reason alone it is thought that it the fight is held there it would attract a big crowd.

There were three brushes, but in the last half mile the three brushes, but in the last half mile the freshman boat was dropped.

The regular 'varsity crew won all three races, but had to hustle to keep in the lead. In the first scrap the freshman and second 'varsity were about even and beaten by the big crew by half a length. In the second race the freshmen were beaten by the first crew by half a length, and the youngsters surprised the second 'varsity men by leaving them a quarter of a length astern.

The third race was well contested for an eighth of a mile, when the second eight was gradually left behind, and at the half mile was beaten by nearly a length. The strokes in the three boats ranged from 2s to 34, the freshmen reaching the highest figure in the first brush. The second 'varsity men splashed considerably, but the other boats ran remarkably smooth. considerably, but the other boats ran remarkably smooth.

The well known Crimson football player Roger Derby, who is assistant manager of the Harvard squad, wrenched his right ankle while playing ball this afternoon and is hobbling about the camp.

A new cedar shell, built by John Hoyle of Ithaca, was tried by the 'varsity crew this morning, but was turned over to the freshmen this afternoon. It is probable that the new Davy boat will be used permanently up to the day of the race with Yale.

He had some trouble with one of his drivers. and not being able to fill the man's place immediately started out with the truck him-self. The horse became frightened at some sparrows, and as Higgins reached over to grab the reins he fell under the wheels. Higgins was well-to-do.
